

GRAND RECEPTION AND REPUBLICAN RALLY

net-work of railways that will open up the undeveloped portions of the Territory and make possible a permanent growth of those industries which are now in their infancy. These are now being constructed, and I do not mind telling you, gentlemen, that it is my intention to make the Santa Fe Central lines to New Mexico what the Denver & Rio Grande has been to Colorado. Money has been raised in sufficient amounts to build several of these extensions at once and soon the Territory will be in receipt of this first need.

"The second thing needed by New Mexico, and at that very badly, is irrigation. Projects necessary to the reclaiming of the arid lands are too large to warrant private capital undertaking them alone. We must have the assistance of the United States government and I am willing to promise you that if I cannot secure this for you that I will resign and come home and let the other fellow have a chance. I do not think it will be necessary for me to resign."

At the conclusion of Senator Andrews' brief speech the convention rose and cheered the candidate and many cries of "Viva Republicano" were heard through the hall. The band immediately started to play a rousing air but was nearly drowned out by the noise which reigned supreme for a few moments.

Judge Abbott's Speech.

Judge A. J. Abbott was then introduced by the chairman and made one of his best speeches. He told several amusing stories which placed him in immediate sympathy with his audience. He spoke for a few moments on national questions, took a shy shot at the Democrats, showing the inconsistency of their several platforms and entertained his hearers by a few brief remarks concerning George P. Money. "Mr. Money, in his political speech in Santa Fe," said the Judge, "told us that he had a fine family, which he devotedly loved. Now, gentlemen, I do not think much of a man who does not love his family, and I want to say right here that if New Mexico sent every man to Congress that loves his family I want to know what would become of our population at home."

Judge Abbott referred to the present candidate, showing concisely why Mr. Andrews was the logical candidate of the Republican party. He said that Senator Andrews was doing more for New Mexico than any other one person. "Senator Andrews has shown his faith in New Mexico and his confidence in our resources by his works. He has dug down into his pocket for the development of the resources of this Territory to the extent of a quarter of a million of dollars, besides having induced the investment of large amounts of capital in the proposed net work of railroads of the Santa Fe Central system. Such a man should receive the support of those whom he is so assisting, and I firmly believe that Mr. Andrews will receive the largest majority of any previous candidate for delegate."

Other Speakers.

Antonio D. Vargas, of Ojo Caliente, then took the stand, praising Governor Otero for his economical administration, bringing out tremendous applause in his reference to Senator Andrews and speaking individually of each candidate on the county ticket nominated at the morning session.

By request of the convention, Alfred M. Bergere, of Santa Fe, then addressed the convention for a few moments.

Mr. Bergere's address was a huge success. It was spontaneous and therefore earnest and had great influence with his listeners. He told how the jails had been full of men who could not receive a trial nor be prosecuted under Democratic administrations. He ended with an eulogy to Senator Andrews, showing how he was putting money in the pockets of the laboring people and assisting out of his private funds many who had been unfortunate.

Many short informal speeches followed and the convention closed with three rousing cheers for Governor Otero and Senator Andrews.

The party attended a dance in the evening in the court house. Senator Andrews furnished the Santa Fe band for the occasion and all residents of the vicinity attended and passed a very enjoyable evening.

Early the following morning the party left overland for Chama in a drizzling rain, which could not affect spirits that ran so high as a result of the hearty reception that had been tendered them in the county seat of Rio Arriba County.

LATEST POLITICAL POINTERS

M. C. de Baca, of Leonard Wood County, has been endorsed by the Quay County Republican convention for member of the House on the legislative ticket.

According to a dispatch to the Denver papers from Las Vegas, the Independents of Mora County, whoever that may be, have endorsed George P. Money for delegate to Congress.

The Republican county convention of Dano Ana County will be held in Las Cruces, the county seat, on Saturday, the 15th instant. A Republican ratification meeting will be held at the same time of the convention. Several prominent speakers will be present, among them Judge A. L. Morrison, of this city, provided railway communication with the Mesilla Valley is restored by that time. The convention will consist of fifty delegates.

In Santa Fe County, the old saying "politics makes strange bed fellows" is very apparent and is held in high favor. It is said that the Democratic campaign managers, Territorial and county, are endeavoring to arrange with what is called the Independent Republican faction here, for the support of George P. Money, the Democratic candidate for delegate to Congress. The Democratic politicians, with a few honorable exceptions, are said to be willing to sell out the Democratic legislative and county tickets, bag and baggage, to the Independent Republicans, provided the latter will place George P. Money at the head of their ticket. The rumor is very persistent and will not down. Indeed, there is a great deal of going back and forth between Democratic headquarters and the Independent Republican fusionists. The results will soon be apparent.

The Republican county convention of Sandoval County will be held in the town of Sandoval on Thursday, the 20th instant, at which time a complete county ticket will be named. The convention will consist of fifty-four delegates. The call is signed by Manuel Baca, chairman of the Republican county committee. At is said that the Republicans of Sandoval County desire to name a nominee for one member of the legislative council from the district composed of the counties of Bernalillo, Sandoval and McKinley. The Bernalillo County Republican convention on the other hand, desires to name both candidates for the council from the district.

The records of the county clerk and ex-officio recorder of Grant County shows the transfer by A. R. Gibson and Mrs. Ada E. Gibson, of this city, to James H. Parker, of New York, of the Guy and Eagle mining properties located in the Burro Mountain district. Consideration shown on the document is $12,000.

Several car loads of race horses on the way to Albuquerque to attend the Territorial Fair, arrived in the city last night over the Denver & Rio Grande. Most of the horses are from Colorado points and have been on the road for over a week. The horses will be turned over to the Santa Fe here and taken to Albuquerque tomorrow night.

Judge John K. McFie and Doctor J. H. Sloan were appointed delegates today by Mayor A. R. Gibson to the Twelfth National Irrigation Congress, which will be held in El Paso on November 15. The convention will probably be larger than any similar one held in the past and will be particularly interesting to the delegates from this Territory owing to its close proximity to New Mexico.

The following was the registration in the various city precincts at noon yesterday: Precinct No. 3, 303; precinct No. 4, 340; precinct No. 17, 200; precinct No. 18, 295, making a total of 1,138. The boards of registration will again be in session on Saturday evening at the following places: Precinct No. 3 at the public school house; precinct No. 4 at the office of the Justice of Peace; precinct No. 17 at the office of the Justice of the Peace; precinct No. 18 at the court house.

Mayor A. R. Gibson today appointed Mrs. Eugene A. Fiske and Miss Nannie Simmons as delegates to the Congress of the American Humane Society which will be held November 2 to 4 inclusive on the exposition grounds at St. Louis. Delegates and visitors from all points in the United States will be present as this is one of the most interesting annual gatherings that is held. The society has been formed more particularly for the prevention of cruelty to children and animals and is growing each year in membership.

Judge John R. McFie adjourned the examination in the case of the Territory vs. Tibarsio et al, this morning until 3 o'clock this afternoon, as he had to go to the Capitol to adjourn the session of the Supreme Court. This is the case, it will be remembered, where in these men were arrested on Sunday last for violation of the Sabbath. When the case was called this afternoon the men waived a preliminary hearing and will appear before the March session of the grand jury. All fifteen of them were released on a bond of $1,000.

At 4 o'clock this afternoon Superintendent F. J. Easley wired agent H. S. Lutz that a train for Albuquerque would leave this city tomorrow evening between 4 and 5 o'clock and that the railroad line between Las Vegas and Albuquerque would be sufficiently well repaired by that time to allow traffic. Mr. Lutz says that the train which will leave tomorrow evening for the south will take any and everything that comes along and the more passengers, mail and express the better so as to make up lost time. Santa Feans and others who desire to go south or attend the Albuquerque Fair will therefore take due notice.

Hon. T. B. Catron, who was thrown from a buggy in a runaway accident near Cienega yesterday morning, was brought to this city last night about 9 o'clock. Mr. Catron's injuries consist of a very bad scalp wound, extending from over the right ear around the side of his head and numerous other bruises over his body. Dr. Harroun found it necessary to take 12 stitches in the scalp to close that wound. Mr. Catron lost considerable blood before the arrival of the doctor, but stood the ordeal well and it is not believed that his injuries are anything serious, although he will be confined to his bed for at least a week or ten days.

The local weather bureau takes exception to the statement published in yesterday's New Mexican, wherein it stated, "the first killing frost was recorded this morning." It was not a killing frost but only a light one, and was so published in their daily official report, under the heading U. S. Weather Bureau.

Notes. Frosts are designated as "light," "heavy" or "killing." The term light signifies no destructive effect except to tender plants and vines; "heavy," a copious deposit of frost, but which does not kill the staple products of the locality, and "killing" frost that is destructive to vegetation and staple products. The temperature yesterday morning was only down to 40 degrees and a killing frost seldom occurs unless the temperature falls to 32 degrees or lower, and in this altitude, with New Mexico's usually dry and rarefied air, a temperature a few degrees below the freezing point may be recorded and still a "killing" frost may not occur. The official in charge of the local weather bureau office states the frost of yesterday did no injury, unless it was to tender house plants left in exposed places. The dahlias, nasturtiums and chrysanthemums are usually the first flowers injured by frost, and after careful investigation it was ascertained these flowers had not been injured in the least.

You say: "No!" But she should remind you of a duty you owe your wife. If she has one of the old-fashioned, troublesome, cumbersome, cast-iron Cook Stoves—the kind that get red hot all over—you can end all her kitchen troubles by buying her a "Quick Meal" Range.

The "Quick Meal" Steel Range is so thickly lined with asbestos that all the heat is kept inside the Range to bake and cook the meals. Just add cooking the Cook. In that way it saves fuel and it also saves and sweetens temper.

"Quick Meal" Ranges are daily growing in popularity. They look well, they cook well, they bake well, they last well. That is why there are so many in use—every one recommends another.
